WEBSITE NICC under construction!

The NICC website is temporarily under construction. What initially seemed like technical problems, now turns out to be a serious hack with infected files. Unfortunately, this is becoming more and more common with websites with a lot of content.

We are trying to resolve this quickly. Fortunately, we still have all the original content. The timelines, videos and archive are not on this website.

In the meantime, we published a temporary NICC website online. The address is still www.stichtingnicc.nl

Would you like to support us in solving this? Because it is temporarily not possible to donate through the website, here a QR code so you can donate directly to our bank account.
